The goal of this session is to provide tips and advice for faculty on writing their NSF proposals, with particular focus on both the overall proposal content and the Broader Impacts component. Participants will benefit from the knowledge and expertise of Cornell faculty who won such awards and have participated in proposal review panels at NSF, as well as a faculty member currently serving as a Program Officer at NSF.

Faculty Panelists:

Anurag Agrawal, Professor
Ecology and Evolutionary Biology, College of Arts & Sciences

Dan Cosley, Associate Professor
Information Science, Computing and Information Science
Program Officer NSF: Secure and Trustworthy Cyberspace (SaTC)

Lara Estroff, Associate Professor
Materials Science and Engineering, College of Engineering

Sharon Sassler, Professor
Policy Analysis and Management, College of Human Ecology

We look forward to seeing you!

Kim Holloway Ph.D.
